Go retro with Pan Am bags

By Rosemary McClure, Los Angeles Times Staff Writer

April 20, 2007

Fasten your seat belt for a China Clipper flight into history — with your Pan Am cabin bag. A new collection of bags, replicating Pan American World Airways originals, debuted this month. The vinyl bags, priced from $52 to $82 pay homage to the airline, which ceased operations in 1991. Available at Fred Segal Hats, Santa Monica, (310) 393-2216, or go to www.emoda.com.
